SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Gilberto Vieira White, Secretary General of the Partido Comunista de Colombia (PCC), referred to manifestations of Titoism in Colombia at the 6 February meeting of the PCC. He said that he alone was responsible for PCC decisions and that only he was authorized to make criticisms. Source believed that the Secretary General was referring specifically to criticism of Jesus Villegas Palacios, prominent Communist and leader of the Independent Confederacion de Trabajadores de Colombia (UTC), by Pedro Jose Abella. The latter was apparently chagrined because Villegas was sent to the Warsaw peace congress instead of himself and has attempted to have Villegas blamed for the present situation of the UTC. He accused Villegas of not taking the UTC seriously when it was formed in 1947.
2. The Secretary General also expressed his pleasure with the appearance of anti-American propaganda in the newspaper Jornada. He said that since Jornada on several occasions has declared its fundamental opposition to Communism, the effect of such propaganda is intensified and the PCC should take advantage of it by reprinting appropriate articles in Vanguardia or by circularizing them in leaflet form.

for a report of other tonics discussed at the 6 February meeting.
